

IN THE SOCIAL REALM

A DESCRIPTION OF ONE OF THE RECENT "SHOWER" PARTIES.

Some Bits of Doggerel Verse That Went with the Kitchen Contributions—Personal Mention.

One of the delightful parties given to a bride-elect is a shower. This may be either a linen shower or a kitchen shower, both of which are novelties in the list of entertainments. Parties of these descriptions have been given recently in this city, and with success. The first was a linen shower and this was followed not long after by some fifty or more young ladies and young married ladies receiving invitations to attend an afternoon tea for a bride-elect, and to bring some article in the line of kitchen utensils. These articles were each done up in dainty tissue paper, tied with colored ribbons, and as the guests arrived the parcel was placed in a huge willow laundry basket, having the handles tied with big pink ribbon bows to give it a festive appearance. The tea was served early in the afternoon and after all were refreshed, the guest of honor was placed in a convenient position before the basket and the hostess, with some of the young ladies' assistance, untied the parcels and laid them out on the lap of the recipient, who brought the contents to view and read the pleasure of the company the enclosed rhymes. None of the lines are dignified with the name of poetry, and numerous donors declared those inclosed their first effort. The name of the writer, being read first, the lines follow. There is great opportunity for a bride-elect to show her resources in making impromptu comments on the verse. In the unwrapping of one gift, a tin with a gay pink ribbon tied to the handle, there came to light these lines:

So drink, my dear, and happy be where'er
The days may find you, I pray you think,
And when you drink, I pray you think of
The girls you left behind you.

Inside a blue ball for cooking rice was a card with this:

You and William must have some rice,
For luncheon and sometimes for tea;
That you will make it real nice,
Will you take this ball from me?

The following names the gift:

I would write a verse, but I might fail
So I send with best wishes, a bright tin ball.

Another also names the gift:

To you, my dear, this gift I present,
For rolls, rice and brown, you see it is meant.
In eating them, dear, with your nice cup
I hope you may always think kindly of me.

Attached to a tray ornamented with a row of birds on the branch of a tree were these touching lines:

Four little birds sat on a tree,
Sing merrily!
They were as happy as happy could be,
Sing merrily!

A witty bird came, and a thief was he,
Sing sad-sad-sad!
He said, "Fly away, fly away with me,"
She up and she did fly away with me.

But they were as happy as happy could be,
Sing merrily.

With a large spoon was "Wishing you a heaping spoonful of happiness." This was attached to one present:

I wanted to give an ice-cream freezer;
But thinking that it might tease her,
And surely 'tis my wish to please her,
I decided on a lemon squeezer.

With a nice box of clothes pins was "May your joys stick as close as these pins to the line, and bring you weather and fine."

With a wash board was "Hoping this board will get all your hard rubs in life."

With a sieve was, "May only love and happiness sift through your life."

With one of the kitchen novelties was "I wonder if you know what this is for?"

With a blue enamel stew pan was "A blue dish for blue Mondays, with the hope that the prevailing tint in your life may be rose color."

Politics were touched upon in

This jelly mold is not of gold, but may it grace your kitchen.
And if McKinley gets the chair, may jelly you be rich in.

With one of the three egg beaters was "A woman and a dog and a walnut tree— and an egg; the more you beat them the better they be—it is said." Another verse told how and when to use the gift of a cake turner.

"When the bread is all a-dough and Biddy is gone, just put on your apron and cap and a smile, walk out to the pantry; with sweet, quiet grace, take a crack off the shelf, and a cup, not too large. Then with the best flour mix one egg or two, and some milk—if 'tis sour add soda enough to sweeten the same; but should it be sweet, use good baking powder. Now stir up your batter and be sure and don't forget that salt gives the flavor all men like best. On your hot, well-greased griddle, drop a spoonful or two of this superlative mixture, then when ready to turn take hold of me gently and slide underneath. Turn over very quickly, precious pancake and if it's not beautiful you may give me the 'shake.'" With another present was:

Showers in October turn the leaves all gold,
Showers in December make all our noses cold.
Here's a ray, green sprinkler to catch the April showers
May they herald summer sunshine and fill your world with flowers.

With a dish pan was:

Nieces and pines, needles and pines,
That is the way the old proverb begins,
But truer by far this new version I mean,
Though never in books, old and wise it is seen.

Dust rags and brooms, dish pans for you,
And a girl named Mary who is thirty and so,
A little verse signed Martha Jane read:
Coffee is the staff of life,
I've heard my papa say,
So if you'd be my wife,
Use coffee every day.

Personal and Society.

Mrs. M. H. Spades will go to Chicago this week to make a visit.

Miss Grover, of New York, is visiting Mrs. Morris Ross for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Wasson have gone to New York for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Moore returned yesterday from their wedding trip to Asheville, N. C.

Miss Annie Reume will give a tea Friday afternoon in honor of her guest, Miss Willson, of Terre Haute.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Goodhart will entertain the Tuttle-Goodhart bridal party at dinner Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Enrique C. Miller and family sailed yesterday from Europe for home. They will arrive in the city on Friday.

Mrs. W. H. Armstrong and daughters will receive Thursdays and Mrs. J. L. Lotshar Thursdays during the season.

Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Milburn will receive Monday evenings instead of Tuesdays, as heretofore, during the season.

Mrs. Harry I. Miller spent Friday with her aunt, Mrs. Oliver P. Morton, returning to Terre Haute in the evening.

131 North Pennsylvania street. Mrs. Clippinger will have charge of the reading in history and Mrs. South will read of "Addison."

Miss Joslin, of Greencastle, is the guest of Miss Julia Landers. Miss Landers will entertain informally for her to-morrow evening.

Mr. John H. Fox and guest, Mr. Quarrier, who have been visiting Mr. Fox's parents, on North Meridian street, will return to Purdue to-day.

Queen Esther Auxiliary will be entertained by Mrs. M. J. Drummond at her home, 284 South Senate avenue, Friday afternoon, Oct. 23.

The marriage of Miss Laura A. Lowe and Mr. Carroll L. DeWitt will occur Tuesday evening at the family residence, on North Pennsylvania street.

Mrs. B. Bruce Lentz, of Louisville, who has been very ill, will be removed to the home of her father, Mr. J. W. Dryer, in Morton Place, this week.

Mrs. J. E. Anderson will entertain the Clio Club Friday afternoon. Mrs. Henry Coughlin will read of Tolstol and Mrs. C. B. Nordyke of Turgeneff.

A miscellaneous programme will be given by the members of the first division at the meeting of the Matinee Musical, Wednesday afternoon, at the Propyleum.

The Parlor Club will meet at No. 200 Broadway Wednesday evening. Mr. William H. Dye, Mrs. S. E. Perkins and Miss Della Dearborn are to have the papers.

Mrs. Maurice Donnelly, No. 194 Pleasant street, gave a croquet and evening for her guest, Miss Dale, of Chicago. Lotto was played. Later dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.

The reception to have been given by the second section of the aid society of the Central Christian Church, at the residence of Mrs. Daniel Fleener, has been postponed until Wednesday, Oct. 23.

Mrs. F. M. Purse will receive her friends informally Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 5, at her residence, 679 College avenue, for Mrs. Ladd Pursell and daughter, of Springfield, O. No invitations.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Meurer announce the engagement of their daughter, Annie LeMay, to Mr. Meurer, of Chicago. Mr. Meurer is a resident of Kansas City, Mo., formerly of this city. The wedding will occur in December.

Among the weddings to occur Wednesday are those of Mr. Kevers and Miss Emma Rauch, Miss Wilton Noller and Mr. Ernest Ropkey, Miss Groenwaldt and Dr. Alexander, and Miss Julia Belle Goodhart and Mr. Harry D. Tuttle.

Mrs. Walter Stanley Whitten, who has been staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Nelson, of New York, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Goodhart, on Broadway, having come to attend the marriage of their daughter, Miss Belle Goodhart, and Mr. Harry Dunn Tuttle, which will occur Wednesday evening.

At the Fortieth Library Club Tuesday Mrs. Albert Baker will read a paper on "Distinguished Men of Indiana," and Miss Laura Ream will read of "The Ladies of Early Indianapolis." The conversation will be led by Mrs. J. E. Anderson.

This week's number of Form contains a portrait and sketch of Mrs. Jesse Calhoun Tarkington, of this city, and her connection with the cause of the Revolution. The sketch gives the complete historical record of her ancestry relative to membership in the society.

A McCall Mission tale will be given at Mrs. Frederick Kessler's, 630 East Washington street, Wednesday, Oct. 28, from 2 to 5 o'clock. This will be similar to the kindergarten class, so popular last winter. The McCall Auxiliary sends all proceeds to Salle Indiana, Paris.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian Church will meet in the church parlors Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock. Hostesses for the day will be Mrs. Charles Martindale, Mrs. Lecklider, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. W. S. Johnson, Mrs. C. C. Foster and Mrs. Sisson.

Announcements have been received from Mr. and Mrs. James Almsworth Larned of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Pearl and Mr. George Reese Foster, Jr., which took place Oct. 7 at Marietta, Ga. Mr. Larned and family were former residents of Anderson and known to a large circle of friends throughout the State.

The engagement is announced of Miss Juliette Menzies, of Mount Vernon, Ind., and Mr. Lloyd Beall Fitz Hugh, of Paris, Tex. Miss Juliette is the daughter of G. V. Menzies, of the Indiana Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument Commission. Her grandfather was Governor Alvin Hovey.

The father of Mr. Fitz Hugh is an ex-consul general of Copenhagen, and is related to the distinguished Danish poet Von Bocke. His subject will be "The Children of the Vikings."

Mr. W. H. Donley will give the third of his series of oratorical Tuesday evening at Memorial Church. The programme is entirely of compositions by American musicians, and includes "Sonata in E flat," by Beethoven; "Melody and Intermzzo," by Paderewski; "Scenes from Maritana," by Liszt; "Scene d'Amore," by Wagner; "Berceuse," by Chopin; "Song," by Schumann; "Procession," by Debussy; "Necrology," by Whitman; "Vorspiel, Othello's Confession," by Liszt; "Allegretto," by Foe; "Paraphrase," by Chopin; "Variation on an American Air," by Wagner; "Processional March," by Whitman.

Miss Adah Conner entertained at dinner Friday evening in honor of Miss Julia Belle Goodhart and Mr. Harry D. Tuttle, and yesterday afternoon Misses Anna and Mrs. Portner gave a small heart party for Miss Goodhart. Only a few of the more intimate friends were invited. The game of hearts was played during the afternoon, and later a supper was served, at which all of the appointments were heartily enjoyed. The prizes for the game were also of the same design. The parlors of the hostesses were arranged with flowers, and the Misses Torrence, who have made a study of kypsy cards, told the fortunes of the young ladies.

The year books of the Dramatic Club were issued yesterday. They have an artistic cover of light green, with a design in white in harmony with the work of the club. There will be four plays given during the winter under the management of the club: Dec. 1, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Jameson, Miss Van Velsigh, Mr. Newton Booth Tarkington and Mr. Garrard; Dec. 2, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rice MacKay, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Martindale, Feb. 2, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Dorsey, Miss of Columbus, Mr. James Graydon and Mr. Walter O. Sullivan, April 2, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mayo, Miss Malott and Mr. George T. P. Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Townley gave a delightful musical last evening in honor of her guest, Mrs. Crail, of Louisville. Quite a company of friends was present and the programme of music offered was very enjoyable. Mrs. Crail, who is a vocalist of ability, with a sweet and well-cultivated voice, sang, with violin accompaniment by Mrs. William Clevenger. Other participants are well known in musical circles, and were Mrs. James M. Leathers, who was heard in a solo and in a duet with Mrs. Crail; Wallace Krug, who sang two solos, one with harp and violin accompaniment by Miss Cora Daggett and Mrs. Clevenger. Other soloists were Miss Rowena New and Mr. Ernest Hoff. The entertainment was the first one of the kind for the young ladies.

The year books of the Dramatic Club were issued yesterday. They have an artistic cover of light green, with a design in white in harmony with the work of the club. There will be four plays given during the winter under the management of the club: Dec. 1, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Jameson, Miss Van Velsigh, Mr. Newton Booth Tarkington and Mr. Garrard; Dec. 2, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rice MacKay, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Martindale, Feb. 2, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Dorsey, Miss of Columbus, Mr. James Graydon and Mr. Walter O. Sullivan, April 2, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mayo, Miss Malott and Mr. George T. P. Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Townley gave a delightful musical last evening in honor of her guest, Mrs. Crail, of Louisville. Quite a company of friends was present and the programme of music offered was very enjoyable. Mrs. Crail, who is a vocalist of ability, with a sweet and well-cultivated voice, sang, with violin accompaniment by Mrs. William Clevenger. Other participants are well known in musical circles, and were Mrs. James M. Leathers, who was heard in a solo and in a duet with Mrs. Crail; Wallace Krug, who sang two solos, one with harp and violin accompaniment by Miss Cora Daggett and Mrs. Clevenger. Other soloists were Miss Rowena New and Mr. Ernest Hoff. The entertainment was the first one of the kind for the young ladies.

The year books of the Dramatic Club were issued yesterday. They have an artistic cover of light green, with a design in white in harmony with the work of the club. There will be four plays given during the winter under the management of the club: Dec. 1, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Jameson, Miss Van Velsigh, Mr. Newton Booth Tarkington and Mr. Garrard; Dec. 2, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rice MacKay, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Martindale, Feb. 2, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Dorsey, Miss of Columbus, Mr. James Graydon and Mr. Walter O. Sullivan, April 2, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mayo, Miss Malott and Mr. George T. P. Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Townley gave a delightful musical last evening in honor of her guest, Mrs. Crail, of Louisville. Quite a company of friends was present and the programme of music offered was very enjoyable. Mrs. Crail, who is a vocalist of ability, with a sweet and well-cultivated voice, sang, with violin accompaniment by Mrs. William Clevenger. Other participants are well known in musical circles, and were Mrs. James M. Leathers, who was heard in a solo and in a duet with Mrs. Crail; Wallace Krug, who sang two solos, one with harp and violin accompaniment by Miss Cora Daggett and Mrs. Clevenger. Other soloists were Miss Rowena New and Mr. Ernest Hoff. The entertainment was the first one of the kind for the young ladies.

The year books of the Dramatic Club were issued yesterday. They have an artistic cover of light green, with a design in white in harmony with the work of the club. There will be four plays given during the winter under the management of the club: Dec. 1, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Jameson, Miss Van Velsigh, Mr. Newton Booth Tarkington and Mr. Garrard; Dec. 2, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rice MacKay, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Martindale, Feb. 2, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Dorsey, Miss of Columbus, Mr. James Graydon and Mr. Walter O. Sullivan, April 2, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mayo, Miss Malott and Mr. George T. P. Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Townley gave a delightful musical last evening in honor of her guest, Mrs. Crail, of Louisville. Quite a company of friends was present and the programme of music offered was very enjoyable. Mrs. Crail, who is a vocalist of ability, with a sweet and well-cultivated voice, sang, with violin accompaniment by Mrs. William Clevenger. Other participants are well known in musical circles, and were Mrs. James M. Leathers, who was heard in a solo and in a duet with Mrs. Crail; Wallace Krug, who sang two solos, one with harp and violin accompaniment by Miss Cora Daggett and Mrs. Clevenger. Other soloists were Miss Rowena New and Mr. Ernest Hoff. The entertainment was the first one of the kind for the young ladies.

The year books of the Dramatic Club were issued yesterday. They have an artistic cover of light green, with a design in white in harmony with the work of the club. There will be four plays given during the winter under the management of the club: Dec. 1, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Jameson, Miss Van Velsigh, Mr. Newton Booth Tarkington and Mr. Garrard; Dec. 2, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rice MacKay, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Martindale, Feb. 2, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Dorsey, Miss of Columbus, Mr. James Graydon and Mr. Walter O. Sullivan, April 2, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mayo, Miss Malott and Mr. George T. P. Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Townley gave a delightful musical last evening in honor of her guest, Mrs. Crail, of Louisville. Quite a company of friends was present and the programme of music offered was very enjoyable. Mrs. Crail, who is a vocalist of ability, with a sweet and well-cultivated voice, sang, with violin accompaniment by Mrs. William Clevenger. Other participants are well known in musical circles, and were Mrs. James M. Leathers, who was heard in a solo and in a duet with Mrs. Crail; Wallace Krug, who sang two solos, one with harp and violin accompaniment by Miss Cora Daggett and Mrs. Clevenger. Other soloists were Miss Rowena New and Mr. Ernest Hoff. The entertainment was the first one of the kind for the young ladies.

The year books of the Dramatic Club were issued yesterday. They have an artistic cover of light green, with a design in white in harmony with the work of the club. There will be four plays given during the winter under the management of the club: Dec. 1, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Jameson, Miss Van Velsigh, Mr. Newton Booth Tarkington and Mr. Garrard; Dec. 2, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rice MacKay, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Martindale, Feb. 2, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Dorsey, Miss of Columbus, Mr. James Graydon and Mr. Walter O. Sullivan, April 2, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mayo, Miss Malott and Mr. George T. P. Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Townley gave a delightful musical last evening in honor of her guest, Mrs. Crail, of Louisville. Quite a company of friends was present and the programme of music offered was very enjoyable. Mrs. Crail, who is a vocalist of ability, with a sweet and well-cultivated voice, sang, with violin accompaniment by Mrs. William Clevenger. Other participants are well known in musical circles, and were Mrs. James M. Leathers, who was heard in a solo and in a duet with Mrs. Crail; Wallace Krug, who sang two solos, one with harp and violin accompaniment by Miss Cora Daggett and Mrs. Clevenger. Other soloists were Miss Rowena New and Mr. Ernest Hoff. The entertainment was the first one of the kind for the young ladies.

The year books of the Dramatic Club were issued yesterday. They have an artistic cover of light green, with a design in white in harmony with the work of the club. There will be four plays given during the winter under the management of the club: Dec. 1, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Jameson, Miss Van Velsigh, Mr. Newton Booth Tarkington and Mr. Garrard; Dec. 2, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rice MacKay, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Martindale, Feb. 2, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Dorsey, Miss of Columbus, Mr. James Graydon and Mr. Walter O. Sullivan, April 2, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mayo, Miss Malott and Mr. George T. P. Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Townley gave a delightful musical last evening in honor of her guest, Mrs. Crail, of Louisville. Quite a company of friends was present and the programme of music offered was very enjoyable. Mrs. Crail, who is a vocalist of ability, with a sweet and well-cultivated voice, sang, with violin accompaniment by Mrs. William Clevenger. Other participants are well known in musical circles, and were Mrs. James M. Leathers, who was heard in a solo and in a duet with Mrs. Crail; Wallace Krug, who sang two solos, one with harp and violin accompaniment by Miss Cora Daggett and Mrs. Clevenger. Other soloists were Miss Rowena New and Mr. Ernest Hoff. The entertainment was the first one of the kind for the young ladies.

The year books of the Dramatic Club were issued yesterday. They have an artistic cover of light green, with a design in white in harmony with the work of the club. There will be four plays given during the winter under the management of the club: Dec. 1, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Jameson, Miss Van Velsigh, Mr. Newton Booth Tarkington and Mr. Garrard; Dec. 2, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rice MacKay, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Martindale, Feb. 2, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Dorsey, Miss of Columbus, Mr. James Graydon and Mr. Walter O. Sullivan, April 2, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mayo, Miss Malott and Mr. George T. P. Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Townley gave a delightful musical last evening in honor of her guest, Mrs. Crail, of Louisville. Quite a company of friends was present and the programme of music offered was very enjoyable. Mrs. Crail, who is a vocalist of ability, with a sweet and well-cultivated voice, sang, with violin accompaniment by Mrs. William Clevenger. Other participants are well known in musical circles, and were Mrs. James M. Leathers, who was heard in a solo and in a duet with Mrs. Crail; Wallace Krug, who sang two solos, one with harp and violin accompaniment by Miss Cora Daggett and Mrs. Clevenger. Other soloists were Miss Rowena New and Mr. Ernest Hoff. The entertainment was the first one of the kind for the young ladies.

The year books of the Dramatic Club were issued yesterday. They have an artistic cover of light green, with a design in white in harmony with the work of the club. There will be four plays given during the winter under the management of the club: Dec. 1, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Jameson, Miss Van Velsigh, Mr. Newton Booth Tarkington and Mr. Garrard; Dec. 2, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rice MacKay, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Martindale, Feb. 2, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Dorsey, Miss of Columbus, Mr. James Graydon and Mr. Walter O. Sullivan, April 2, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mayo, Miss Malott and Mr. George T. P. Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Townley gave a delightful musical last evening in honor of her guest, Mrs. Crail, of Louisville. Quite a company of friends was present and the programme of music offered was very enjoyable. Mrs. Crail, who is a vocalist of ability, with a sweet and well-cultivated voice, sang, with violin accompaniment by Mrs. William Clevenger. Other participants are well known in musical circles, and were Mrs. James M. Leathers, who was heard in a solo and in a duet with Mrs. Crail; Wallace Krug, who sang two solos, one with harp and violin accompaniment by Miss Cora Daggett and Mrs. Clevenger. Other soloists were Miss Rowena New and Mr. Ernest Hoff. The entertainment was the first one of the kind for the young ladies.

The year books of the Dramatic Club were issued yesterday. They have an artistic cover of light green, with a design in white in harmony with the work of the club. There will be four plays given during the winter under the management of the club: Dec. 1, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Jameson, Miss Van Velsigh, Mr. Newton Booth Tarkington and Mr. Garrard; Dec. 2, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rice MacKay, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Martindale, Feb. 2, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Dorsey, Miss of Columbus, Mr. James Graydon and Mr. Walter O. Sullivan, April 2, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mayo, Miss Malott and Mr. George T. P. Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Townley gave a delightful musical last evening in honor of her guest, Mrs. Crail, of Louisville. Quite a company of friends was present and the programme of music offered was very enjoyable. Mrs. Crail, who is a vocalist of ability, with a sweet and well-cultivated voice, sang, with violin accompaniment by Mrs. William Clevenger. Other participants are well known in musical circles, and were Mrs. James M. Leathers, who was heard in a solo and in a duet with Mrs. Crail; Wallace Krug, who sang two solos, one with harp and violin accompaniment by Miss Cora Daggett and Mrs. Clevenger. Other soloists were Miss Rowena New and Mr. Ernest Hoff. The entertainment was the first one of the kind for the young ladies.

The year books of the Dramatic Club were issued yesterday. They have an artistic cover of light green, with a design in white in harmony with the work of the club. There will be four plays given during the winter under the management of the club: Dec. 1, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Jameson, Miss Van Velsigh, Mr. Newton Booth Tarkington and Mr. Garrard; Dec. 2, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rice MacKay, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Martindale, Feb. 2, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Dorsey, Miss of Columbus, Mr. James Graydon and Mr. Walter O. Sullivan, April 2, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mayo, Miss Malott and Mr. George T. P. Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Townley gave a delightful musical last evening in honor of her guest, Mrs. Crail, of Louisville. Quite a company of friends was present and the programme of music offered was very enjoyable. Mrs. Crail, who is a vocalist of ability, with a sweet and well-cultivated voice, sang, with violin accompaniment by Mrs. William Clevenger. Other participants are well known in musical circles, and were Mrs. James M. Leathers, who was heard in a solo and in a duet with Mrs. Crail; Wallace Krug, who sang two solos, one with harp and violin accompaniment by Miss Cora Daggett and Mrs. Clevenger. Other soloists were Miss Rowena New and Mr. Ernest Hoff. The entertainment was the first one of the kind for the young ladies.

The year books of the Dramatic Club were issued yesterday. They have an artistic cover of light green, with a design in white in harmony with the work of the club. There will be four plays given during the winter under the management of the club: Dec. 1, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Jameson, Miss Van Velsigh, Mr. Newton Booth Tarkington and Mr. Garrard; Dec. 2, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rice MacKay, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Martindale, Feb. 2, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Dorsey, Miss of Columbus, Mr. James Graydon and Mr. Walter O. Sullivan, April 2, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mayo, Miss Malott and Mr. George T. P. Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Townley gave a delightful musical last evening in honor of her guest, Mrs. Crail, of Louisville. Quite a company of friends was present and the programme of music offered was very enjoyable. Mrs. Crail, who is a vocalist of ability, with a sweet and well-cultivated voice, sang, with violin accompaniment by Mrs. William Clevenger. Other participants are well known in musical circles, and were Mrs. James M. Leathers, who was heard in a solo and in a duet with Mrs. Crail; Wallace Krug, who sang two solos, one with harp and violin accompaniment by Miss Cora Daggett and Mrs. Clevenger. Other soloists were Miss Rowena New and Mr. Ernest Hoff. The entertainment was the first one of the kind for the young ladies.

The year books of the Dramatic Club were issued yesterday. They have an artistic cover of light green, with a design in white in harmony with the work of the club. There will be four plays given during the winter under the management of the club: Dec. 1, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Jameson, Miss Van Velsigh, Mr. Newton Booth Tarkington and Mr. Garrard; Dec. 2, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rice MacKay, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Martindale, Feb. 2, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Dorsey, Miss of Columbus, Mr. James Graydon and Mr. Walter O. Sullivan, April 2, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mayo, Miss Malott and Mr. George T. P. Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Townley gave a delightful musical last evening in honor of her guest, Mrs. Crail, of Louisville. Quite a company of friends was present and the programme of music offered was very enjoyable. Mrs. Crail, who is a vocalist of ability, with a sweet and well-cultivated voice, sang, with violin accompaniment by Mrs. William Clevenger. Other participants are well known in musical circles, and were Mrs. James M. Leathers, who was heard in a solo and in a duet with Mrs. Crail; Wallace Krug, who sang two solos, one with harp and violin accompaniment by Miss Cora Daggett and Mrs. Clevenger. Other soloists were Miss Rowena New and Mr. Ernest Hoff. The entertainment was the first one of the kind for the young ladies.

The year books of the Dramatic Club were issued yesterday. They have an artistic cover of light green, with a design in white in harmony with the work of the club. There will be four plays given during the winter under the management of the club: Dec. 1, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Jameson, Miss Van Velsigh, Mr. Newton Booth Tarkington and Mr. Garrard; Dec. 2, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rice MacKay, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Martindale, Feb. 2, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Dorsey, Miss of Columbus, Mr. James Graydon and Mr. Walter O. Sullivan, April 2, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mayo, Miss Malott and Mr. George T. P. Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Townley gave a delightful musical last evening in honor of her guest, Mrs. Crail, of Louisville. Quite a company of friends was present and the programme of music offered was very enjoyable. Mrs. Crail, who is a vocalist of ability, with a sweet and well-cultivated voice, sang, with violin accompaniment by Mrs. William Clevenger. Other participants are well known in musical circles, and were Mrs. James M. Leathers, who was heard in a solo and in a duet with Mrs. Crail; Wallace Krug, who sang two solos, one with harp and violin accompaniment by Miss Cora Daggett and Mrs. Clevenger. Other soloists were Miss Rowena New and Mr. Ernest Hoff. The entertainment was the first one of the kind for the young ladies.

The year books of the Dramatic Club were issued yesterday. They have an artistic cover of light green, with a design in white in harmony with the work of the club. There will be four plays given during the winter under the management of the club: Dec. 1, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Jameson, Miss Van Velsigh, Mr. Newton Booth Tarkington and Mr. Garrard; Dec. 2, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rice MacKay, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Martindale, Feb. 2, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Dorsey, Miss of Columbus, Mr. James Graydon and Mr. Walter O. Sullivan, April 2, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mayo, Miss Malott and Mr. George T. P. Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Townley gave a delightful musical last evening in honor of her guest, Mrs. Crail, of Louisville. Quite a company of friends was present and the programme of music offered was very enjoyable. Mrs. Crail, who is a vocalist of ability, with a sweet and well-cultivated voice, sang, with violin accompaniment by Mrs. William Clevenger. Other participants are well known in musical circles, and were Mrs. James M. Leathers, who was heard in a solo and in a duet with Mrs. Crail; Wallace Krug, who sang two solos, one with harp and violin accompaniment by Miss Cora Daggett and Mrs. Clevenger. Other soloists were Miss Rowena New and Mr. Ernest Hoff. The entertainment was the first one of the kind for the young ladies.

The year books of the Dramatic Club were issued yesterday. They have an artistic cover of light green, with a design in white in harmony with the work of the club. There will be four plays given during the winter under the management of the club: Dec. 1, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Jameson, Miss Van Velsigh, Mr. Newton Booth Tarkington and Mr. Garrard; Dec. 2, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rice MacKay, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Martindale, Feb. 2, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Dorsey, Miss of Columbus, Mr. James Graydon and Mr. Walter O. Sullivan, April 2, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mayo, Miss Malott and Mr. George T. P. Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Townley gave a delightful musical last evening in honor of her guest, Mrs. Crail, of Louisville. Quite a company of friends was present and the programme of music offered was very enjoyable. Mrs. Crail, who is a vocalist of ability, with a sweet and well-cultivated voice, sang, with violin accompaniment by Mrs. William Clevenger. Other participants are well known in musical circles, and were Mrs. James M. Leathers, who was heard in a solo and in a duet with Mrs. Crail; Wallace Krug, who sang two solos, one with harp and violin accompaniment by Miss Cora Daggett and Mrs. Clevenger. Other soloists were Miss Rowena New and Mr. Ernest Hoff. The entertainment was the first one of the kind for the young ladies.

LADIES, Special Attention!

A Thousand Tailor-Made SUITS

Go on Sale To-morrow at About Half Price!